

October 20 1892

Dear Mother

I am writing you
from the West
and hope you are all well
and happy
as usual
I am very much lovingly
your son

I am writing you
about the things I have seen and heard about the people of the West. I am very much interested in the people of the West and
hope you are all well and happy as usual
I am
very
much
lovingly
your son