Professor Gaetano Falzone,
Via Mario Rapisardi, 16,
Palermo.

Dear Professor Falzone,

I have been talking to John Calabrini since he returned from his recent visit to Sicily, and would like to apologise if my letter of 22nd July sounded somewhat abrupt.

Mr. Calabrini has once again reminded me of all the help you originally gave in Palermo to my predecessor, Bevis Hillier, and has pointed out that your article was in fact written for our magazine at his specific request.

Under the circumstances I feel that the least we can do is to pay you the regular fee of £50 for all the trouble you have taken, in the hope that you will accept this as a token of our esteem and deep regret for all this inconvenience we have caused you. I have asked John Calabrini to make the equivalent amount available to you in Palermo, in Italian lire.

With kindest regards,

William Allan
